

Library Trivia Challenge

Week 1:

What are the nicknames of the lion statues located in front of the New York Public Library? (Hint: During the 1930s, Mayor Fiorello LaGuardia gave the lions these nicknames for the qualities he felt New Yorkers would need to survive the economic depression.)

Week 2:

What is the name of the oldest free public library in continuous service since 1743 in the U.S.?

Week 3:

What is the name of the oldest library in the world? (Hint: This library is no longer lending.)

Week 4:

What is the name of the world's most widely used library classification system?

Week 5:

How many buildings does the Library of Congress have?

Week 6:

What is the name of the Director of the Hunterdon County Library System?

Week 7:

What U.S. President had two library books overdue for over 220 years (one has recently been replaced)?

Week 8:

Which Hunterdon County Library location was once a train station?

Week 9:

What is the name of the library featured at the beginning of the movie Ghostbusters?

Week 10:

In what city and state is the James Monroe Memorial Library located?

Week 11:

- a. What library was featured in the movie City of Angels?
- b. What library was featured in the movie National Treasure: Book of Secrets?

Week 12:

Where is the world's smallest lending library (as of Nov. 29, 2009) located?

Week 13:

Which U.S. library does the "Grey Lady Ghost" haunt?