The Friends of the Hunterdon County Library support the Library, its patrons and the community which it serves.

What do Friends do?

* Act as advocates for the Library, promote Library use and public support.
* Raise funds to support the Library's special needs through programs such as annual book sale.
* Sponsor book discussion groups and special programs.
* Provide outreach programs to bring the Library to the community.
* Share a mutual love of books and the Library.

The Friends of the Hunterdon County Library is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization. Contributions are tax-deductible.
