

Ross Montieth and Calvin Langman

Hunterdon County Natives Ross Monteith and Calvin Langman began making music together in the Summer of 2016. Since then, their music has reached over one million listeners on Spotify under their pseudonym "The Happy Fits". Their unique blend of rock guitar and classical cello creates new folky, energetic sound, rooted from the inspirational pastoral fields and farms of Hunterdon County. After their first successful nationwide tour this Spring, Monteith and Langman plan for an intimate night at the North County Branch Library, exploring their unique songwriting craftsmanship influenced by their upbringings in rural Jersey. Many at NCB Library have had the pleasure to hear Calvin perform for several years, and he always packs the house! Come out for an evening of honest, youthful songwriting and stories from the road.
