

What happens when the line between the past and the present begins to blur... The Cemetery Keeper's Wife poignantly blends fact and fiction as two women scarred by shame, and separated by more than a century, reach across time to rewrite history.

Maryann's first novel, The Richest Season sold at auction to Hyperion Books and became a Target Breakout Novel and was awarded an Indie Next List Pick by The American Booksellers Association. Her next two novels, So Happy Together and The Book Lover, are also Indie Next Picks. The Cemetery Keeper's Wife, her fourth novel, is set in her hometown and was released May 2018. Maryann is a speaker and writing coach, and loves to chat with book clubs. Her unusual publishing journey has inspired many aspiring authors. Maryann lives in Northwest New Jersey.
