

The Star Spangled Songbook

with Dave DeLuca

A lifelong New Jersey native, Dave DeLuca has been a professional musician since 1977. Join Dave as he presents “The Star Spangled Songbook.” The Songbook is a musical celebration of the great American composers and lyricists whose body of work boosted the morale of the people living through the deprivation of the Great Depression, those who went on to fight in World War II, and those that stayed behind to keep the war effort going on at the home front. Together, they crafted a body of work that is uniquely American, from Tin Pan Alley to Broadway, from jazz standards to the songs that won the war.
