

The Tax Act of 2010: So What Do I Do Now? Estate Planning with John Manfreda

John Manfreda, Esq. of Gebhardt and Kiefer, P.C. will review the new tax act, but with a slightly different twist. He will lead a discussion of the new tax estate tax law, including a review of the new options available for estate and gift tax planning, as well as how to reduce exposure to the NJ Estate Tax. Mr. Manfreda has presented several estate planning seminars at the library, always to a full house. His primary practice areas involve estate and business planning, estate and trust administration, corporate, commercial and real estate law, including asset protection planning, business succession planning and related transactional work, and the purchase and sale of businesses.
