

SATURDAY WINTER CONCERT SERIES

CONTINUES IN FEBRUARY @ NCB Library!

SATURDAY, Feb. 2 @ 2pm

Intimate Exploration of the Art of Improvising

Kazzrie Jaxen (piano/vocals) and Don Messina (double bass) love the raw energy and true fun of pure improvisation. Having spent their musical lives cultivating the joy of present-moment creation, they strive to make each performance a transformative experience. Rooted in tradition, sharing a love of jazz swing, their duets become inquiries: how far to the outer limits of melody and harmony can they stretch? Standard tunes, jazz lines, original compositions, plus totally free improvisations are woven into their performances through the contrapuntal voices of piano, bass, voice, poetry, and song -- always unique and surprising, always improvised!

SATURDAY, Feb., 16 @ 2pm

TOGETHER WHEREVER WE GO

Featuring: “DeJesus Inspires”

Jaime, Nancy and Big Lou will entertain you with romantic Oldies from their newly released CD, “Echoes of Harlem” and much more. Enjoy the humor of yesteryear as these 3 lovable entertainers reminisce about the origins of their musical history together, Jaime and Big Lou’s acapella roots as teenagers singing under the street lamps of Harlem, and Nancy’s magical ear for background harmonies.

+++++

These programs will fill quickly.
Please reserve your seat(s) either online www.hclibrary.us, or call 908-730-6135.

Due to expected Wait List, please cancel if you will not be attending.