

Here are the recipients of the 2020 Friends of the Hunterdon County Library Books for the College Bound Scholarships:

Angelica Chin: North Hunterdon High School

Angelica is going to MIT majoring in CS and Economics. She plays chess and has played competitively internationally. She likes to play the piano and oboe and plays tennis.

Serena Rivera: Delaware Valley Regional High School

Serena's hobbies include learning, traveling, and exploring new things! She participated in key club, sport and spirit club, diversity club, and the cross country team! She loves getting involved where she can and serving others. She's planning on attending Brigham Young University in Provo, Utah this fall and majoring in neuroscience with a minor in psychology. She's excited for what the future has in store!!

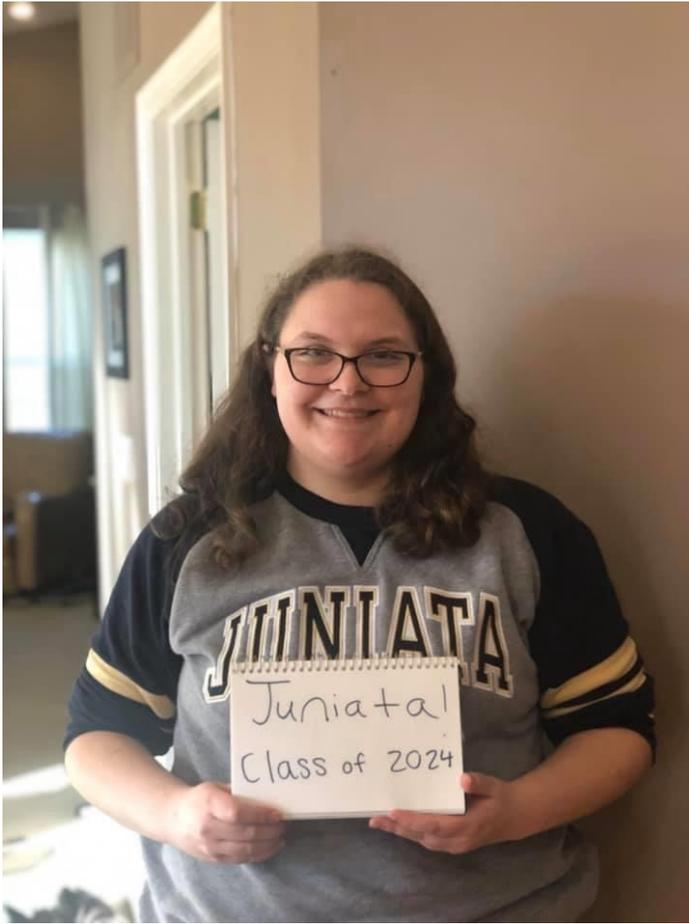

Allisa Conover: Hunterdon Central Regional High School

Allisa Conover will be majoring in nursing at TCNJ, and she's known she wanted to go into the medical field since she was little. Other than medicine, her passions include musical theatre, teaching figure skating, and dancing. She loves to perform on stage and is currently sharing this passion with children as a virtual camp counselor for a Zoom theatre academy. In addition to nursing at TCNJ she will also be minoring in theatre! She is very involved with her church and teaching CCD to second graders, along with cantoring at Mass weekly. In her spare time, she enjoys reading non-fiction, and is looking forward to starting college in August!

Jack Scala: Voorhees High School

Jack is from Tewksbury, New Jersey, and is a proud recipient of the 2020 Friends of the Hunterdon County Library scholarship. He will use the scholarship to study genetics at Stanford University. Outside of school, Jack enjoys reading English and Italian literature, traveling, and spending time with his friends.

Julia Wedeking: South Hunterdon Regional High School

Julia Wedeking is a South Hunterdon Class of 2020 graduate who will be attending Juniata College as an incoming freshman. She spends her time reading, writing, listening to music and theater. Julia has always loved books and the worlds within them. She hopes to continue Library sciences in some way and explore more passions in the future.
