

Costuming Shakespeare

with Costume Designer Sarah Ochocki

NJ costume designer Sarah Ochocki will explore some of Shakespeare's text for "costume clues" - places where a certain costume is necessitated - and talk about why Shakespeare may have wanted the character to dress that way. Sarah Ochocki has been designing, creating and documenting historical dress since 2013. She has a MA in Theatre, and currently serves as the Costume Shop Manager for The Shakespeare Theatre of New Jersey.

Wednesday, Feb. 24 at 7:30pm

To REGISTER go to Events Calendar at:

<http://hclibrary.evanced.info/signup/Calendar>