

Native Plant Society of NJ presents

Winter Botany 101

The Native Plant Society of NJ's Wonderful Wednesday Webinars returns with Joe Alvarez, who will discuss simple keys and field guides so that you can learn to identify the bark, buds, shape and habitat characteristics of many local trees and woody plant species. Joe has over 40 years experience with the landscape and nursery industry.

Wednesday, January 27 at 7pm
For more information and to REGISTER:

<https://bit.ly/2L7M0W0>